MIC Night does not involve modification to a space on campus, making a permanent installation, hiring a full-time staff, creating a new academic course etc.

We are uploading this file because the field was required for submission of the final proposal.